1. Anti-Soviet resistance continues to exist and grow in Rumania. At the end of August a Soviet train was derailed between Constanta and Bucharest and 150 persons, mostly USSR soldiers, were killed. At the end of August 1951 and the beginning of September there were operations by strong groups of partisans in the province of Oltenia. The Rumanian Militia was unable to suppress the activities of these partisans led by former Rumanian Army officers.
2. The evacuation from Bucharest of political undesirables has been suspended, but evacuation continues from the area near the Yugoslav border. Most of these evacuees have been sent to northeastern Rumania, to the cities of Barlad, Iasi, Tecuci, and the Baragan area.
